Personal Identification Number (PIN)

Return to Glossary

A Personal Identification Number (PIN) is a sequence of numbers that only a user would know. Commonly, PINs are assigned to bank customers for use with automatic cash dispensers. They are also used, sometimes with a security token, for individual access to computer networks or other secure systems.

Source: https://whatis.techtarget.com/definition/pin-or-PIN

From:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/ - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:p:pin&rev=1627576273

Last update: 2021/07/29 12:31