

Application Container

Return to Glossary

An Application Container is a stand-alone, all-in-one package for a software application. Containers include the application binaries, plus the software dependencies and the hardware requirements needed to run, all wrapped up into an independent, self-contained unit.

Source:

<https://developer.hpe.com/blog/JM2009Z32ptYpRrm43Og/kubernetes-application-containers-managing-containers-and-cluster-resources>

From:
<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a\_glossary:a:app\_container&rev=1607698396

Last update: 2020/12/11 09:53

