

Biometrics

Return to Glossary

Biometrics are a group of digital security methods that rely on biological or physiological attributes, used to prevent data breaches such as credit card hacks or unauthorized log-ins. Biometrics uses criteria that is physically unique to an individual that can prove their identity, such as a fingerprint or voice pattern, rather than relying on passwords or PIN codes that can be more easily hacked or stolen.

Source: <https://www.investopedia.com/terms/b/biometrics.asp>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:b:biometrics&rev=1605488452

Last update: 2020/11/15 20:00

