

Chain Linking

Return to Glossary

Chain Linking is the process of connecting two blockchains with each other, thus allowing transactions between the chains to take place. This will allow blockchains like Bitcoin to communicate with other sidechains, allowing the exchange of assets between them.

Source: <https://hackernoon.com/blockchain-dictionary-f4d098c9ef89>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:c:chain_linking

Last update: 2021/10/04 04:14

