

Confirmation

Return to Glossary

Confirmation is the blockchain transaction has been verified by the network. This happens through a process known as mining, in a proof-of-work system (e.g. Bitcoin). Once a transaction is confirmed, it cannot be reversed or double spent. The more confirmations a transaction has, the harder it becomes to perform a double spend attack..

Source: <https://hackernoon.com/blockchain-dictionary-f4d098c9ef89>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:c:confirmation&rev=1628536835

Last update: 2021/08/09 15:20

