

Duck Typing

Return to Glossary

Duck Typing is a style of dynamic typing in which an object's current set of methods and properties determines the valid semantics, rather than its inheritance from a particular class or implementation of a specific interface.

Source: <https://www.yourdictionary.com/duck-typing>

From:
<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:d:ducktyping&rev=1605396376

Last update: 2020/11/14 18:26

