

Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI)

Return to Glossary

Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI) is a technical protocol that governs the interaction of digital instruments with computers and with each other. Instead of a direct musical sound representation, MIDI provides the information on how a musical sound is made with the help of MIDI commands. The protocol not only provides compactness but also provides ease in manipulation and modification of notes, along with a flexible choice of instruments.

Source: <https://www.techopedia.com/definition/4508/musical-instrument-digital-interface-midi>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:m:midi

Last update: 2022/01/15 14:05

