

Peer

Return to Glossary

A Peer is a node that provides the same functionality as another. For example, two desktop computers in a network are peers. A desktop computer and a server are not peers as they perform different operations. The desktop computer may query the Server for business data, but the server does not query the computer for the same data.

Source: <https://www.pcmag.com/encyclopedia/term/peer>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:p:peer&rev=1641685345

Last update: 2022/01/08 18:42

