

Reference Architecture (RA)

Return to Glossary

A Reference Architecture (RA) is defined as a set of goals:

- Provide common language for the various stakeholders
- Provide consistency of implementation of technology to solve problems
- Support the validation and comparison of implementations
- Encourage adherence to common standards, specifications, and patterns

Source: G. Doyle and B. Wilezynski, "Reference Architecture Description," U. S. DoD, Washington, DC, 2010., Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Networks and Information Integration (OASD/NII) Reference Architecture Description

From:
<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:r:reference_architecture&rev=1605252542

Last update: 2020/11/13 02:29

