

Shall (Requirement)

Return to Glossary

Shall Requirement - Shall is used to indicate a requirement that is contractually binding, meaning it must be implemented, and its implementation verified. Period! Don't think of "shall" as a word, but rather as an icon that SCREAMS: "This is a requirement." If a statement does not contain the word "shall" it is not a requirement.

Source: <https://reqexperts.com/2012/10/09/using-the-correct-terms-shall-will-should/>

From:

<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:

https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:s:shall_req&rev=1623782188

Last update: 2021/06/15 14:36

