

Sidechain

Return to Glossary

A Sidechain is a secondary blkchn connected to the main blockchain with a two-way peg. Sidechains may have their own consensus protocols, which could be completely different from the mainchain's protocol. Theoretically, a sidechain can add new functionalities, improve privacy, and security of traditionally vanilla blockchains.

Source: <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/abs/pii/S1084804519303315>

From:
<https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/> - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:s:sidechain&rev=1619799193

Last update: 2021/04/30 12:13

