Worst-Case Execution Time (WCET)

Return to Glossary

Worst-Case Execution Time (WCET) is a software development metric that determines the maximum length of time a task or set of tasks requires on a specific hardware platform. The worst-case scenario is a crucial consideration for Hard Real-Time Systems, which have a non-negotiable deadline.

Source: https://searchsoftwarequality.techtarget.com/definition/worst-case-execution-time-WCET

From:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/ - DIDO Wiki

Permanent link:
https://www.omgwiki.org/dido/doku.php?id=dido:public:ra:xapend:xapend.a_glossary:w:wcet&rev=1642255052

Last update: 2022/01/15 08:57